PUMP STATIONS ARE LEFT HIGH AND DRY BY CUTS

Decision raises new fears over flooding to farm land

by Danielle Thompson

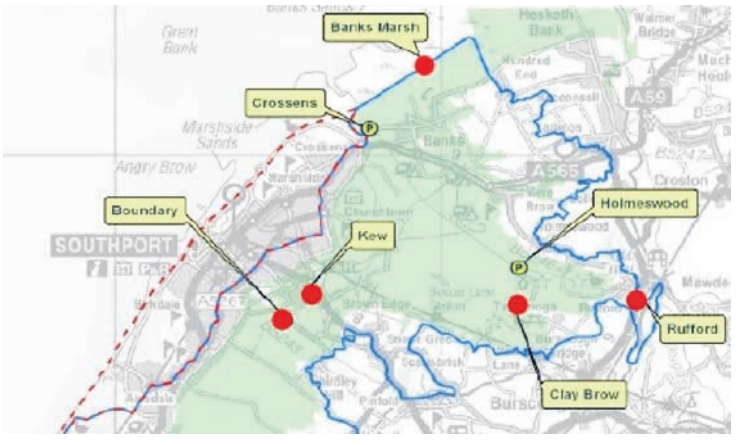
FUNDING for five flood prevention pumps in the Alt Crossens area has been axed, the Environment Agency has confirmed.

The decision has renewed fears of an increased risk of flooding to low–lying homes and farms.

The pumps at Banks Marsh, Boundary Brook, Kew, Rufford Causeway and Clay Brow, which benefit the mainly agricultural, areas, will not be funded by the EA after July 2017.

Under Government guidance, the Environment Agency has to prioritise flood risk management that benefits people and residential property. The Environment Agency claim that if the five pumps were no longer operated, there would be no increase to flood risk inside residential properties.



Funding to five pump stations in the Alt Crossens area will be cut

The news comes less than a year after the EA spent £5million on a refurbishment project at the Crossens Pumping Station.

The EA has also suggested that other organisations/groups could take over the five pumping stations, while the National Farmer's Union has suggested that creating an Internal Drainage Board (a panel of local farmers and landowners, environmental agencies and water manage– ment organisations) would be the best solution to prevent flooding – and is lobbying for government funding, as they say such a move would be a financial burden on landowners and the local authority.

Information days, which will show the areas of land affected will be held from 2pm–7pm on the following dates and venues.

Award for county's school dinners!

Report by Henry James

FOOD served up in Lancashire's schools and care homes has been given a seal of approval.

The county council's school and residential care catering group has been awarded the Soil Association's prestigious Silver Food for Life Catering Mark.

The award is a commendation for the 70,000 meals served every day in 485 primary and secondary schools and 23 care homes across the county for pupils, students and adults.

The Food for Life Catering Mark recognises food providers who prepare meals using fresh, seasonal ingredients which are free from controversial e–numbers and provides reassurance that the food served meets high standards of traceability, freshness and source.

County Councillor Matthew Tomlinson, Lancashire's cabinet member for children, young people and schools, said: "We are absolutely delighted to have achieved the Silver Food for Life Catering Mark for our commitment to serving fresh and healthy meals made with local and organic ingredients.

"We champion local food and suppliers and I know that we are particularly proud of the relationship we have with our suppliers.

"We use organic foodstuffs, including rice, pasta, flour and milk and we change what we offer on the menu so it is always seasonal regarding the ingredients we use. Our customers are diverse, so we make sure that our menus provide for all dietary and cultural needs.

"We hope our meals are enjoyed all the more knowing that we are doing our best to source ethical and environmentally–friendly food, championing local producers and making it easy to eat healthily. All of this also means that we are helping to reduce food miles and our environmental footprint.

County Councillor Matthew Tomlinson

"We won't rest on our laurels though. We have a long–term commitment to continue to improve the quality of ingredients we use and where we source them from and hopefully this will help us to achieve the gold standard soon."

Rob Sexton, chief executive of Soil Association Certification, said: "We're pleased to see Lancashire's school and residential care catering group gaining recognition for serving great fresh meals made with seasonal, local and organic ingredients. Serving menus to Silver Catering Mark Standards supports local businesses and reassures customers that all meals are free from GM ingredients."

Funding cuts to pumping stations

• Tuesday, 21 July at Mere Brow Village Hall at The Gravel

• Thursday 23 July at Haskayne Village Hall on School Lane

• Friday 24 July at the Scarisbrick National Services Club on Bullens Lane

Andy Brown, the EA's flood and coastal risk manager, said: "This (funding cuts) may not mean these pumps will stop operating.

"Other organisations or groups of people may want to take them over and continue with the pumping.

"The Environment Agency, and other partners, will continue working with others to try to find practical, alternative arrangements for operating the pumps once the Environment Agency is no longer funding them."

NFU North West's environment and land use adviser Alice Unsworth, said: "Since this announcement the NFU has been focussing its efforts on identifying the best business options for our members.

"We strongly believe the best technical option is the formation of an Internal Drainage Board to manage the levels in the catchment. This option would ensure that everyone who benefits would contribute.

"In order to get a better understanding of how an Internal Drainage Board works, we've taken farmers and parish councillors to visit an existing IDB in the North East to see how it's structured and organised.

"The NFU has also lobbied local MPs to release funding from central government as we acknowledge the formation of an IDB will be a new financial burden for both land owners and local authorities."

• The Scarisbrick National Services Club has disabled access but no disabled toilets. If this causes difficulties for anyone, the EA can arrange to meet with them at a location they would prefer.

A FORMER primary school teacher from West Lancs who cared for sick, disabled and terminally–ill people on annual religious pilgrimages for more than half–a–century has received the British Citizen Award .

John Fahey, 71, from Parbold, was given the honour in recognition of his services to volunteering and charitable giving, as reported in the Champion last week.

Jeannie Pritchard mending a doll

Jeannie wants to open a teddy bears' coffee shop!

Jeannie, who used to work for Lancashire County Council caring for children with disabilities, first became interested in doll conservation work 20 years ago and she completed a course in restoring ceramics in Hertfordshire before taking on a job at the conservation studios at the Museum of Lancashire in Preston for more than three years.

She was forced to retire from her job ten years ago as she was diagnosed with lupus and diabetes but by working three–hour shifts four days a week, she has built up the doll hospital from a workshop in her home ten years ago to the studio at the Wharf, where she has been open for the last 4½ years.

She restores unusual items from all over the world and she has mended a teddy bear whose hat was and legs were damaged in an IRA blast, fixed a doll from the Belsen Concentration camp whose legs were broken and mended dolls once owned by Queen Victoria and Margaret Thatcher as well as a broken doll given to a child at Alder Hey Children's Hospital by Queen Mary, the wife of King George.

Jeannie told the Champion: "My customers usually go to a café while I fix their bears and dolls but it would be more interesting for them to stay and watch me fix them with a nice coffee at a teddy bears' coffee shop!

"As a diabetic and a vegetarian, I would like to offer the usual cakes and breads but I would also be focussing on healthy options including diabetic bread and lost of vegetarian choices – and I really love coffee!"

West Lancashire Borough Council's planning department aim to make a decision on the application later this month.

Solar farm plans are withdrawn

...but only for time being

Report by Danielle Thompson

PLANS FOR two controversial solar farms in Aughton have been withdrawn by the developers... for the time being.

BE Renewables Limited announced last Friday (July 10) that they will not be pursuing applications for solar farms on Formby Lane and Back Lane. However, they stressed that they are still 'committed' to the long–term future of the sites.

A spokesman for BE Renewables said: "We are still fully committed to both of these solar farms and we are pleased with most of the consultee responses so far.

"As a company we decided it would be better to withdraw to give everyone more time to review the specifics of each project.

"We are very much committed to solar energy, very committed to these sites and very committed to developing solar farms without compromising ethical, moral and environmental values. The solar farms have numerous benefits along with allowing West Lancashire to contribute to the legally binding commitments the UK face regarding climate change.

"We would like again to thank everyone who has put forward their thoughts to the proposals, as a company we always work with the community, the consultees and the professional officers in finding a solar farm that is appropriate and we will continue to do so with these sites."

Paul Bewick, Chair of the 'Protect Aughton's Land–scape Together' group which was fighting the solar farm plans welcomed the withdrawal of the applications but said the group remains focussed on its campaign to protect the local Green Belt in the future.

He said: "Clearly, it is the right thing for the developers to do given the amount of crucial information missing from their applications but we note that they remain committed to these applications and to pursuing them in the future.

"We hope, though, that the strength of public opposition to these plans has sent a clear message that these are the wrong plans in the wrong place – we are not against renewable energy, but digging up the Green Belt to make way for it cannot be the answer."

Thomas, 10, sets his sights on half marathon

Thomas with dad Alan

A TEN YEAR old boy from Bickerstaffe will run his own half–marathon this weekend to raise funds and awareness for a national sight loss charity.

Thomas Ralfs, who is too young to enter an official half marathon, has set himself his own 13 mile challenge, which he will run with his dad, Alan, on Saturday along the Rainford Bypass.

Thomas, whose sister Sophie, eight, suffers from an eye condition, is hoping to raise £250 for the Royal National Institute of Blind People.

Sophie has Nystagmus a condition which causes continuous, uncontrolled to and fro movement of the eyes, meaning that she has reduced vision.

Cautious welcome to latest fall in crime

New figures show 2.9% drop across county

by Henry James

AN annual 2.9% reduction in crime across the county has been cautiously welcomed by Lancashire's Police Commissioner, Clive Grunshaw.

The reduction for the year 2014/15 related to recordings of all crime and was revealed at the Annual General Meeting of the Police and Crime Panel in Blackpool last week.

However, there were increases in the number of sexual offences recorded in the statistics which were taken from Lancashire Constabulary's own recording system CORA. Mr Grunshaw is to allocate an extra £1m to deal with this.

The Commissioner, who outlined the figure as part of his annual report to the panel said: "The reduction in crime of 2.9% this year means an overall fall of 5.6% since I came into office which is obviously good news and shows a good picture for Lancashire. While I welcome this, there are clearly some areas where there has been an increase and this is worrying both to myself and members of the panel.

Lancashire Police and Crime Commissioner Clive Grunshaw

"There are increases in the number of sexual offences – particularly rape cases – and this is undoubtedly linked to reporting of crimes that have taken place in the past and also as a direct result of our efforts to raise awareness of sexual exploitation and grooming.

"However, this increase does worry me, especially in the light of the continuing financial pressures we face and I have already allocated an extra £1m to help clear the caseload of sexual offences from reserves."

The report also highlighted that despite £61m of cuts delivered in the last five years, the Constabulary had been rated "outstanding" in the HMIC report published in February for the way it was handling cuts. There was also reassurance that the Constabulary had managed an increasingly complex workload as well as investigating serious and organised crime, supporting prevention programmes and cybercrime.

Mr Grunshaw also stressed that despite reductions in funding, local policing had been maintained with savings made by reducing management and overhead costs, but that the cuts had sadly led to 700 fewer officer roles and 500 fewer staff roles by the end of March.

He told the panel that he had reduced the cost of running the Commissioner's office by £200k a year compared to the old Police Authority. Other highlights, he claimed, included the high level of public confidence in the force at 91% and effective partnership working with a range of organisations to provide support for victims and vulnerable people.

‘Historic’ Red Lion pub to be flattened for care home

by Danielle Thompson

CONTROVERSIAL plans have been submitted to demolish the former Red Lion pub in Burscough and build a new care home in its place.

Applicants, the Athena Group, submitted an outline planning application to the council earlier this month to bulldoze the Liverpool Road South pub, which has been closed since last year, and create a new a three–floor care home development.

One nearby resident, Angela Felton, contacted the Champion to say how horrified she was about the plans.

She said: “The outline planning proposal recently submitted for the Red Lion in Burscough indicates that the existing building will be effectively demolished.

“The Red Lion is an important part of the history of Burscough which has stood for well over 200 years.

“The proposed development represents yet another nail in the coffin for what remains of the area’s heritage and character.

“I would hope that a way could be found to at least conserve the external appearance of the building in any new development.”

The developers stated in their application that the care home would require a significant number of full–time staff, directly contributing to the local economy.

Residents have until Wednesday, July 29, to submit their views to the council.

West Lancashire Borough Council’s planning committee aim to make a decision on the application by Friday, July 31.

Mayor visits ‘most vulnerable’ groups

THE MAYOR of West Lancashire visited representatives from organisations that help the most vulnerable members of society.

The Mayor, Councillor Nikki Hennessy and Councillor Ian Moran, Leader of West Lancashire Borough Council visited representatives of West Lancashire Debt Advice, Ormskirk Food Bank and Ormskirk Street Pastors at The Boiler Room on Burscough Street.

Brian Hardisty, volunteer debt adviser and acting secretary at West Lancashire Debt Advice, told the Champion: “The Mayor visited us to discuss how the council can further help the organisations, and meet members of our groups who help members of society the most.

“At West Lancashire Debt Advice we all offer our services for free, we have 15 trained debt advisors who are members of churches across West Lancashire and our work is funded by churches and local charities across the borough.”

Booths store set for opening day

by Danielle Thompson

More shops to follow at Ringtail Retail development

THE NEW Booths supermarket is set to open today (Wednesday) at the Ringtail Retail Estate in Burscough.

The opening of the 30,000 square foot supermarket, featuring a café, butchery, fishmonger and deli counters, has created 60 new jobs.

Booths is seen as the flagship store of the development, which will also be joined at a future date by B&M Bargains and Pets At Home.

The HMS Ringtail war memorial was moved in 2013 to allow the access road for the Park to be built and the new Booths supermarket was built in the shape of a World War Two aircraft hangar to honour the heritage of the retail park’s location on part of the former air station.

A memorial garden was created for the Royal Naval Air Station monument which has been moved to a fully accessible, safer and more prominent position at the new development.

Lancashire based contractors and developers, Barnfield Construction Limited, started work on the £12million retail development on the site early last year on behalf of Bentley Investments Incorporated last year.

Booths was the first phase of the scheme – and Barnfield Construction have now started construction on phase two’ six new units, two of which will be Pets at Home (5,000sqft) and B&M Bargains (12,000sqft).

B&M have said their store, which will be in addition to their town–centre shop, will create 75 jobs, while Pets At Home’s store will create 15 new jobs.

At the official opening today, Booths will reveal a large sculpture inspired by the Southport Flower Show of its logo made from fresh fruit and vegetables.

This will be the second Booths supermarket in West Lancashire, following the opening of the Hesketh Bank store in 2010.

The other retail units are expected to be ready for occupation by early 2016.

TWO medics who work at Southport and Ormskirk Hospital Trust have won a national patient safety prize for their work preventing kidney injury in older people.

Dr Andrew Falzon and consultant urological surgeon Rahul Mistry, won the Patient Safety in Care of Older People Award with their projects 'Breaking AKI' and 'Ur–ine–volved' at the Patient Safety Congress and Awards event held in Birmingham.

Acute kidney injury (AKI) occurs when there is sudden damage to the kidneys and can cause a reduction in their function which can be temporary or permanent if not identified early. It particularly affects people over 65 but also those with long–term medical conditions such as heart failure and diabetes.

Experts estimate AKI is responsible for one–in–five emergency admissions to hospital and up to 100,000 hospital deaths of which nearly a quarter could be prevented.

Dr Falzon and Mr Mistry developed a three–pronged approach that educates and involves patients, promotes early recognition of symptoms and helps with the management of AKI in hospital.

"By empowering patients through education, patients can assess their own hydration status through their urine colour and quantity as well as identify any symptoms that should be brought to the attention of a medical professional," said Dr Falzon.

Mr Mistry added: "As doctors, we're always telling patients to drink more but it's less straight–forward to advise how much.

"The tools we have developed include information sheets which allow self–directed patient education. We are both delighted the work has been recognised at these prestigious awards."

Aughton choir to sing for youngster

Ella Lang – need a special physiotherapy vest

THE AUGHTON Male Voice Choir are urging West Lancashire residents to back a £12,0000 fund–raising campaign to buy life–changing equipment for a six year old Cystic Fibrosis sufferer, writes DANIELLE THOMPSON

Gareth Lang, a member of Southport Rugby Club, needs a £12,000 'physiotherapy vest' to help his daughter, Ella, to manage a genetic condition in which her lungs and digestive system become clogged with thick sticky mucus.

The vest would reduce her chances of infection and hopefully cut down her hospital stays.

Southport Rugby Club will attempt to set a new Guinness Word Record for the longest continuous rugby game played – in excess of 26 hours – starting at 3pm on Friday, July 31 at their ground.

More than 40 members of the choir will be on hand to help celebrate with a programme of songs at the end of the attempt at 5pm on Saturday, August 1.

Tony Boyson from the choir told the Champion: "Wer were asked to help celebrate the attempt by Southport RFC to achieve the Guinness Record for the longest continuous game ever played.

"Some 40 plus choir members will be performing. In addition the choir will be joined by Francesca Louise Fairclough, a Burscough musician who will be making her début performance.

Singer/songwriter Francesca is currently studying at the London College of Music, and we are delighted she has agreed to appear with us, to celebrate what will be a fantastic event.

Rotting tobacco smell gets right up the noses of residents

BURSCOUGH residents have been 'overwhelmed' by the smell of buried rotting tobacco which was dug up on a housing development.

Lynn Topping, who lives on Liverpool Road North told the Champion that the smell was due to work being done on the road to excavate tobacco which is thought to have been buried up to 50 years ago.

She says the smell is particularly strong near to the Bull and Dog pub – and that residents along the road, and Lordsgate Lane, have been suffering with the smell for more than three weeks.

She said: "The smell is absolutely appalling, it really is too much for us to deal with.

"I am worried about the long–term health implications of breathing such toxic waste for weeks.

"The work has taken far too long. They're digging up tobacco and as it is disturbed the degrading material is releasing tannins and toxic chemicals into the air – it is absolutely disgusting."

A spokesman for West Lancashire Borough Council said: The developer has been required to undertake a thorough investigation of the site for any possible contaminated land.

"The odours were released as material was dug out and simply dissipated to atmosphere.

"The digging has now stopped."

As to why the tobacco was buried in the first place remains a mystery.

Wigan pair jailed for spate of house raids in borough

by Danielle Thompson

TWO men who carried out a spate of burglaries in Parbold and Burscough stealing goods worth £40,000 have been jailed for more than 11 years.

Michael Tither, 32, and Gareth Buckley, 26, both from Wigan, took 'highly sentimental' items from a number of homes including war medals in raids they carried out last March.

The homes were unoccupied at the time of the offences but most were ransacked with damage done to the houses.

As a result of the spike in crime, a policing operation was put in place in Parbold.

During the operation, plain clothes officers swooped on the men in Lancaster Lane.

When officers searched Buckley, he was carrying gloves and a crowbar, while Tither had a pair of gloves, and officers noticed that footwear they were wearing was similar to footwear marks recovered from some of the reported burglaries.

The pair pleaded guilty to a number of crimes at Liverpool Crown Court earlier this month and they were sentenced to a combined total of more than 11 years.

Buckley admitted to committing four burglaries, one attempted burglary and one offence of going equipped to steal and was sentenced to six years' imprisonment.

Tither admitted to committing three burglaries, one attempted burglary and an offence of going equipped to steal and was handed a sentence of five years, nine months.

Spike in crime led to police operation in West Lancs village

Gareth Buckley

Michael Tither

Sergeant Steve Monk, who lead the investigation, said: "The sentences reflect the seriousness of the crimes committed. Crimes of this nature are very intrusive and cause a great amount of distress.

"Hopefully the sentences handed down will give the homeowners reassurance and closure.

"Both men travelled into West Lancashire from Wigan intent on committing crime and Lancashire Constabulary are committed to tracking down travelling criminals and bringing them to justice."

Make your views heard, say solar farm protest group

by Danielle Thompson

A SOLAR farm protest group is urging residents to make their views heard at a public consultation meeting in Mawdesley on Monday, July 20.

Mawdesley and Heskin Solar Farm Protest Group wants locals to attend a meeting being organised by energy project developers, MS Power Project Limited.

More than 120 residents launched the protest group in January to campaign against a possible solar farm development on a site on the outskirts of West Lancashire between Mawdesley and Hoscar.

MS Power Projects submitted a request earlier this year for a 'screening opinion' for a ground–mounted solar farm the size of 34 football pitches on land to the north of Blackburn House Farm, Tannersmith Lane in Mawdesley.

The developers are holding the public consultation meeting with local residents ahead of submitting a planning application for the solar farm.

A spokesman for the group said: "The Heskin Old Hall Farm solar project now moves to the next phase by arranging for the necessary Public Consultation prior to the submission of a planning application. MS Power has engaged a consultancy organisation called Entrust to represent them.

"We know many share our concerns in regard to the serious damage this development could do to every aspect of our community. If our objections to this project are to be taken seriously and have any impact, then now is the time to make our feelings known with a show of solidarity.

"If you object to these proposals, please do not hesitate to describe your objections in full on the Form. Any non–committal responses or no responses at all, are likely to be regarded as acceptance of the proposals. Some examples of individual reasons to object include the loss of High Grade Agricultural Green Belt Land, detrimental visual impact on landscape from an industrial scale development, potential harm to local wildlife and the excessive use by unsuitable large vehicles on narrow rural roads.

"Other concerns are that open views of lovely countryside with a well–used public footpath will be spoilt by ugly solar panels, metal mesh fencing, security cameras and lights, plus buildings.

"Please give us your maximum support by attending."

Watching the Detective!

A HORSE rider from Parbold has taken part in an international horse–riding competition.

Carrie Byrom, 33, is the yard manager at Parbold Equestrian Centre, which she runs with her mother and coach, Nicola Byrom.

She took part in the Bramham International Horse Trials on her own horse, Detective, and took 16th place overall against hundreds of riders after taking on the dressage, show–jumping and cross country rounds.

The competition was held in Wetherby, West Yorkshire.

Nicola said: "We are immensely proud of Carrie's achievements in training Detective over the last five years. Her hard work is now paying dividends.

"There is great interest from British and overseas coaches in Detective which is great testament to Carrie and validates the training programme we have. Carrie specialises in training horses for eventing."

Dance event helps honour community champions

Divine Project teams up with council for arts fun day

By Danielle Thompson

VISITORS to West Lancashire recently enjoyed the annual Ormskirk Dance Festival at Coronation Park.

The Divine Days Community Art Project, which aims to make the arts accessible to all including the most vulnerable in the community, teamed up with West Lancs Council to host the event earlier this month.

With bases in Burscough and Skelmersdale, the project was founded by Katie Whitehead, who runs therapeutic and educational programmes for individuals with additional needs, including creative dance and drama workshops.

Members of the project's dance group, the Divine Dancers, who rehearse at the Greenhill Community Hub in Old Skelmersdale, joined forces with the council to stage the free event.

As well as groups showcasing a variety of styles, from traditional Morris dancing to street dance, the festival featured a funfair, bouncy castle, face–painting, craft and community stalls, and entertainment including a brass band.

Katie Whitehead, the founder of Divine Days Community Art Project, launched the Rachel Georgina Memorial Awards at the Dance Festival in honour of her sister, who died aged just 18 in 1992 from complications from Down's Syndrome.

The three awards, which recognise excellence within dancing, were won by Divine Days dancers.

Ann and Mike Scanlon, who are married, won the Commitment and Creativity Award and the Dedication and Commitment Award respectively after attending every single event that the Divine Days dancers were offered over the last three years, while outstanding dancer Elizabeth McKenzie won the Artist, Interpretaton and Creativity Award.

All three winners won a Medal, Certificate and Cup, while the runners up all won medals and certificates, which were presented by the West Lancashire Mayor, Councillor Nikki Hennessy.

Elizabeth McKenzie won a scholarship, which entitles her to 10 free Divine Days sessions and a year of free community theatre workshops, while Ann and Mike Scanlon won a meal for two at a restaurant in Burscough.

Katie Whitehead told the Champion: "The event was amazing, it was such a success and so many people turned up. Dancers from Delphside Dance, Burscough School of Dance, Dreammakers and the Engine Rooms entertained huge crowds.

"It was a an honour to launch the Rachel Georgina Memorial Awards in memory of my sister, who was a talented dancer and really inspired me to do what I do.

"I see so much of her in the dancers, in their talent, dedication and commitment and we will be holding the awards annually to recognise the hard work done by the dancers, who are all inspiring in their own ways.

"The Scanlons have been to every single event and never fail to impress with their dedication, hard work and commitment and they are so helpful and passionate while I see so much of my sister in Elizabeth McKenzie, who just gets dance completely and is fantastically talented.

"It was wonderful to host the event and see everyone love the day so much, and to launch the Awards."

Get smart in 'war'on potholes!

ALL road users have a common enemy on the roads these days – yes, potholes, hundreds of them!

The campaigning website FillThatHole has launched an app for android–powered smartphones, to complement its existing iPhone app.

Using GPS, it's possible to report potholes and other road hazards from the roadside direct to the appropriate local authority.

No need to work out which council or agency is responsible for the road – the app knows!

The organisation then also logs the number of holes by authority and monitors whether they have been filled. According to FillThatHole's league table, the north–east of England fares best in the filled holes stakes, with near 100% of all reported holes filled.

FillTHatHole.org.uk was set up in 2007 by the CTC, the national cycling charity, to record potholes and other road hazards. Both the iPhone and android apps are available for free download from the website and there is also an on–line report form for non–smartphone users.

Over the last five years, I have travelled widely around the country with my job and found that potholes are a national problem, appearing on roads from motorways to more minor roads.

I can only assume that the lack of timely repair and investment in our roads is due to cut–backs, due to the credit crunch and also spending billions (rightly or wrongly) on the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Anyway, let's get reporting all the local potholes with our phones and see what happens.

It's not just the dogs that need training – the owners do too!

RE: the letter headed 'Don't keep a dog if you are out all day' (Champion, July 1) the writer states: "Don't just get a dog/dogs and annoy everyone else, it's cruel" – yes it's cruel, cruel on the neighbours!

I would say don't keep dogs if you allow them to continually bark.

My current experience of neighbouring dogs barking is worse when the neighbours are actually there. Frantic barking/yapping is allowed to go on at nothing in particular, it's as though the dogs hit fresh air and all hell breaks loose.

I cannot for the life of me comprehend how barking dogs can understand when they are told 'if you don't behave you will go in.' It became apparent the dogs didn't understand the ultimatum as they continued to yap and, more importantly, were allowed to. Perhaps the dogs couldn't hear over the noise.

I quite often get woken by neighbouring dogs, there are two of them, barking outside in their garden from 6am onwards, sometimes earlier. I feel like screaming sometimes when the barking is totally over the top.

If you can, please check your deeds. One of my property covenants states: "The property is a dwelling house. No trade or business of any kind whatsoever shall be carried on thereupon nor shall the purchasers so use or permit to be used the said premises as to be a nuisance or annoyance or cause damage to the vendor or its successors in title the owners or occupiers of any adjoining adjacent or neighbouring premises."

In other words, have some consideration for yiour neighbours. You and your dogs are a noise nuisance, do something about your dog(s) continually barking.

It's not only dogs that need training, so do the owners.

Let them go to someone who will look after them properly

I AM writing in support of the letter headed 'Don't keep a dog if you are out all day' (Champion, July 1).

My goodness, how true were those words!

My experience is of dogs left for at least 10 hours a day every day, including weekends. Hearing the poor things whimpering because of where they are is heartbreaking.

The RSPCA say if they can turn round and have water there's nothing they can do.

Not sanitising the yard leaves an unbelievable smell and large amount of flies which means windows and doors have to stay shut – particularly frustrating in the lovely weather we've just been having.

So why, why, why keep them.? If you truly love those animals, let someone else have them who will look after them properly and get enjoyment out of them.

Nursing home staff are providing much–needed loving care and attention – and friendship too

I AM an 85–year–old resident of Ormskirk and my wife of 57 years, Doreen, who will be 79 years old herself next month, is resident at Springfield Court Nursing Home in Aughton.

My wife is very poorly with the same condition that affected Robin Williams who sadly died earlier this year.

Lewie Bodies Dementia with Parkinsonism is cruelly taking my wife slowly away from me.

In August of 2014 we found Springfield Court Nursing home where Doreen has since been looked after every day with lovely care.

Doreen needs round–the–clock nursing care.

It breaks my heart to not have my wife at home, but I am unable to give her the care she needs alone at home with me.

However, I am able to visit my wife several times throughout each and every day.

I am able to see that she not only receives continued love and care, but that every single member of staff, who I call my friends, are also giving Doreen much–needed love and attention.

Repairs claim is a joke

HAVING read the article in the Champion (July 8) about the loose railings near the Dream Centre in Digmoor I found it very funny that the council have thanked the centre for bringing it to their attention.

My mother reported this problem in November 2014 and again in February this year.

Then again three weeks ago I sent some pictures to Rosie Cooper to show the damage that had still not been repaired.

So for the council to say that they only just heard about it on June 30 is a complete joke.

I have a letter from the council that states that they repair all damaged flags and walls every year, yet the images I have sent to Rosie Cooper show damaged wall, flags and kerbstones dating back years that have never been repaired.

You wouldn't hear dogs if you were at work!

ON the subject of dog ownership and in reply to the letter in the Champion (July 1) headed 'Don't keep a dog if you are out all day'.

This letter made me and my two dogs look at each other in disbelief!

I am out all day myself (it's called having a job) and my two dogs are in perfect health and exercised regularly.

Maybe if you were in employment instead of pyjamas all day you wouldn't hear them!

Trace your family tree!

IF you would like to trace your family tree there's a chance to sign up for a special event being held at Burscough library next month.

The event will run from 9.30am to 3pm on Tuesday, August 11 and members of the public are invited to go along to the library in Mill Lane to take part.

It's free but participants need to book in for a 30–minute slot for one–to–one advice with a specialist from Lancashire County Council's heritage team.

Carol Young from the library said: "Do you have a World War One ancestor that you would like to know more about? Are you interested in starting your family tree? Have you started your family tree but feeling a bit stuck or lost? If the answer to any of these questions is yes, help is on the way. A member of the county council's community heritage team will be on hand to show you just how much information you can access through the library these days. Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Manager Paul Kane feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Crosby, Litherland, Aintree, Maghull, Walton, Anfield, Netherton, Bootle, Formby, Ormskirk and Skelmersdale areas & Paul is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Paul a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Parish council leader slams solar farm bids

A PARISH council leader has hit out at the number of solar farm planning applications which he claims are threatening to destroy the nature of a "formerly quiet, leafy village."

Chairman of Aughton Parish Council, Councillor David Gallagher said he was disappointed that so many applications for solar farms in the area had been logged in the last year. And he accused the government of encouraging energy companies to put forward the schemes by offering attractive subsidies as part of what he described as a "flawed renewable energy policy."

Instead of promoting solar farms, Cllr. Gallagher believes the government should be looking to hydroelectricity, harnessing the power of water.

He said: "The formerly quiet leafy village of Aughton has been inundated recently with aggressive planning applications and scoping requests for solar farms, housing developments and care homes – all on green belt land.

"The recent planning application for a solar farm at Gerard Hall was rejected but Hive Energy appealed against this decision to the secretary of state for communities and local government so the decision lies with the government.

David Gallagher

"Now more planning applications for solar arrays are being made for Back Lane and Formby Lane by BE Renewables and my sympathies go out to the Protect Aughton's Landscape Together Group following the recent consultation at St Michael's Church Hall.

"The solar arrays are being proposed because of attractive government subsidies. They are hated by local residents but the government wish to go ahead with them at all costs under a flawed renewable energy policy.

"What is required is investment in hydro, which is the only major renewable technology that meets the test for affordability."

Breathe Easy group sign up to national project

WEST Lancs and Southport Breathe Easy Group has been accepted into a national scheme that aims to increase the reach of the British Lung Foundation's patient support groups.

The group has been accepted on to the Nesta project and is now one of only 47 integrated Breathe Easy groups in the country.

Healthcare professionals will now attend or participate in eight or more of their group meetings each year, contributing their respiratory expertise and will also promote Breathe Easy and refer new members to them.

West Lancs Breathe Easy will continue to record attendance at their meetings, promote itself at pulmonary rehabilitation clinics and provide patient and carer reviews through completion of regular questionnaires during the Nesta Project, which is researching the impact of self–help Breathe Easy groups.

The group will also be given advice with development, will work more closely with GP surgeries and possibly run an exercise class.

The June meeting of the group was well attended for a talk by Caroline Parker from the development executive of the Nesta project.

The next meeting will be held at the Girl Guide headquarters in Green Lane, Ormskirk on Monday, July 20 starting at 11.15 when senior occupational therapist, Sally Shorrock will give a talk and power point presentation.

Free parking is available nearby and light refreshments will be served from 11am. All members, friends, carers and visitors are invited to attend.

Chance to saddle up for free themed bike rides

WEST Lancs Council has teamed up with British Cycling, the governing body of the sport in the UK, to organise a series of free guided 'themed' fun bike rides through the borough in the coming weeks.

First up is a 'History and Heritage' ride on Sunday, July 19. This starts from Rufford Old Hall, covers 17 miles and is expected to last for two–and–a–half hours.

This wil be followed by a nine–mile 'Waterway and Woodland' jaunt starting from Burscough Wharf on Sunday, July 26 and expected to last one hour.

Rufford Old Hall is the starting point again for the 'Wildlife and Wilderness' ride on Sunday, August 16. This is another 17–mile ride and is also expected to last two–and–a–half hours.

All three events start at 10am, will cover their respective distances at a steady pace and are suitable for adults and children aged eight and over.

The final pedal–powered activity of the series, the 'Eat, Drink and Ride' has no age restrictions and sets off from Banks Leisure Centre at 10am on Sunday, August 23.

The 10–mile ride is expected to last 90 minutes and will cover the distance at a steady pace.

Councillor Yvonne Gagen, West Lancs Council's portfolio holder for leisure, said: "These fantastic bike rides will be very enjoyable for all the family so make sure you book your places."

Places are limited, to book visit www.goskyride.com.

MP backs dog awareness campaign

WEST Lancs MP Rosie Cooper has voiced her support for the Royal Mail's Dog Awareness Week campaign which aims to highlight the number of dog attacks on postal workers.

Figures released for the campaign show there were 28 attacks on postal workers recorded in the constituency in the year to April 2015.

Ms Cooper attended a drop–in session at Westminster on the issue and is working with Royal Mail to encourage dogs owners to play their part in reducing the number of incidents.

She said: "Dog attacks are a significant issue faced by postmen and women, members of the public and, indeed by myself and my volunteers when out leafleting. Royal Mail, the Communication Workers Union, Battersea Dogs & Cats Home and the police are doing a fantastic job promoting responsible dog ownership and I fully support this campaign."

Funding boost for loan charity

Simon Jacobs of RBS presents the cehque to Gerald Waterfield and Elaine Rimmer of Lancashire Community Finance

A WEST Lancashire not–for–profit institution and registered charity has secured £500,000 of funding from RBS Social & Community Capital to provide personal loans to help residents avoid high cost lenders and finance schemes.

From offices in Skelmersdale and Burscough and via its website, Lancashire Community Finance provides personal loans, business start–up loans and home improvement loans to those unable to access mainstream financial services.

Elaine Rimmer of Lancashire Community Finance said: "Our mission is to reduce the number of financially excluded people in the area by providing a viable alternative to the services of doorstep and high–interest lenders. We offer loans on a case–by–case basis without credit scoring and at much, much fairer rates than some other sources, such as doorstep lenders, rent–to–own shops and unlicensed lenders or 'loan sharks'."

Simon Jacobs, chief administrative officer, Commercial & Private Banking, said: "RBS has a strong heritage supporting community–based businesses. Through RBS Social & Community Capital we are building on that support."

Victims urged to 'speak up' about scams

LANCASHIRE County Council's Trading Standards officers are supporting a campaign to encourage more people to speak up and report scams.

It is estimated that only five per cent of those affected by a scam ever report it, hampering efforts to track down the criminals responsible and get help to victims.

Every year thousands of people across the the county – and possibly millions throughout the UK as a whole – fall prey to scammers. The cost to victims nationally is put at around £5 billion although the real cost could be even higher.

'Don't be rushed, don't be hushed' is the theme for national Scams Awareness Month running throughout July.

County Councillor Azhar Ali, Lancashire's cabinet member for health and wellbeing, said: "It is thought that most victims of scams don't report their experience because they feel a sense of shame and simply want to forget what has happened and move on.

"Scams can affect anyone, from teenagers to the elderly, and can have a real impact on mental health, as well as their finances, leading people to lose confidence and miss out on opportunities in life.

Councillor Azhar Ali

"Scammers operate by rushing people into making hasty decisions. During Scams Awareness Month we're making a real push to get out the message that people should take their time to make a decision and get their facts together before parting with their money or personal information, and to speak out when they think they've spotted a scam."

Throughout the month Trading Standards officers will focus on raising awareness of the different types of scams and how to avoid them and issuing advice on phone scams, online scams, mail scams and doorstep scams.

Officers will also be visiting potential victims to return items of mail that have been intercepted on their way back to scammers containing cheques and bank details.

As a result of co–ordinated work with the National Trading Standards Scam Team, approximately 100 pieces of mail are awaiting return to people in Lancashire.

The initiative, launched last June, has already seen more than 50 people in the county receive money back along with a home visit and the offer of further advice and help from a Trading Standards officer. Officers have also visited a further 150 people whose details were being circulated among scammers identifying them as potential targets.

Scams Awareness Month is an annual campaign which sees Trading Standards partner with other agencies including Citizens Advice to prevent scams.

If you are unsure about an offer and believe it may be a scam, speak to family or friends, and seek advice from the Citizens Advice consumer helpline on 03454 040506. If you think you have been misled into paying money as a result of a scam contact Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040 or visit www.actionfraud.police.uk.

McCARTHY & STONE BREAK GROUND WITH SOUTHPORT MP, JOHN PUGH

Southport MP, John Pugh donned a hard hat and hi vis jacket to mark the groundbreaking of McCarthy and Stone's new Retirement Living development in Ainsdale on Friday (26th June).

John Pugh MP was joined by Councillor Haydn Pearce and Jon Sheehy, Senior Marketing Manager for McCarthy and Stone to officially mark the occasion and also had the opportunity to view forthcoming plans for the development. Designed exclusively for the over 60s, the development, which is the first of its kind in Ainsdale, will comprise a mix of 32 one and two bedroom stylish apartments, with first occupations due to take place in summer 2016.

Fiona Brooks, Regional Sales and Marketing Director at McCarthy and Stone Northern, said: "It was fantastic to welcome everyone down to the development to commemorate the occasion, especially with John on hand to place the first spade in the ground.

"Even at this early stage we've already received significant interest from local retirees and further afield, with potential purchasers attracted to the hassle-free lifestyle on offer at our Retirement Living developments. We're urging anyone interested in securing one of these stunning apartments for themselves to register their interest soon or risk disappointment."

John Pugh MP added: "It was a pleasure to formally mark the start of construction here at the development. Living independently and securely is incredibly important, and as we are living longer, it's great to see developments like this in Ainsdale which will help homeowners to maintain this lifestyle for as long as possible."

McCarthy and Stone's Retirement Living developments aim to bridge the gap between conventional Retirement Living and residential care. Homeowners are able to retain independence in the form of home ownership, with their very own front door, yet still have the peace of mind of a range of additional 24/7 security and support services.

Facilities will include a stunning homeowners' lounge ideal for socialising with friends, beautifully landscaped gardens in which to relax and a convenient guest suite should homeowners have friends or relatives to stay. The development also benefits from its very own House Manager, who will ensure the smooth running of the development, a security entrance system, plus 24-hour emergency call points for added peace of mind for both homeowners and their families.

The popular coastal village of Ainsdale is known for its beach, sand dunes and nature reserve; regarded as one of the most important wildlife sites in England. The idyllic landscape provides the perfect backdrop for leisurely strolls through the dunes, pinewoods and golden sandy beaches, whilst the village also boasts a wide variety of shops and restaurants. The development will also enjoy excellent transport links, serviced by Ainsdale train station and local bus routes. Ainsdale is also easily reached from nearby towns including Southport, Crosby, Manchester, Skelmersdale, Blackpool and Preston.

For more information on Retirement Living in Ainsdale, please call 0800 201 4811 or visit http://www.mccarthyandstone.co.uk/

Joseph Lee Jackson as Freddie Mercury Code NA

Mercury hoping to create a kind of magic at town's theatre

TO celebrate 45 years since Queen was formed in 1970, Mercury brings a fitting tribute to Southport Theatre this Friday (July 17) at 7.30pm and will be hoping to create a kind of magic.

As winners of the 2013 National Tribute Awards, Mercury will show Southport how the band has earned its reputation as one of the world's finest exponents of the music of Freddie Mercury and Queen.

It is now 45 years since Queen was formed, and Mercury has firmly established itself as one of the most authentic tributes to both the legend Freddie Mercury and Queen. Freddie Mercury's family, along with Brian May and Roger Taylor have all seen and enjoyed Mercury's authentic stage show.

With a dynamic show that fully emulates the true charismatic appeal of rock's most flamboyant front man, Mercury aims to faithfully and accurately recreate the distinctive Queen experience.

The vocal range and delivery of Joseph Lee Jackson as Freddie Mercury is joined by the guitar work of Glenn Scrimshaw as Brian May.

Joseph said: "We are delighted that Freddie's family see us as an authentic Queen tribute as this is always what we have set out to achieve. Everything we have created – from the costumes and lights, to the sound and music is about creating an authentic experience for Queen fans."

Open Exhibition unveiled to the public

THE West Lancashire Open Exhibition was unveiled to the public on Saturday, July 11.

The Chapel Gallery has brought together a collection of vibrant works by accomplished artists from across the UK.

The gallery, which is run by the borough council, hosts its annual Open Exhibition until September 9. It's a celebration of colour, technique and imagination and gives visitors the chance to see a variety of works created by talented individuals in a wide range of media.

For those interested in developing an art collection, the Open Exhibition is a way to source original artworks to suit all budgets as pieces range from small scale watercolours, prints and photography to large scale contemporary oil paintings, 3D works and textiles.

Councillor Yvonne Gagen, cabinet member for leisure, said: "This is a challenging time for the arts so the fact that this exhibition continues to develop from strength to strength is testament to the passion and commitment of the artists exhibited.

"Visitors will find work from established professionals through to students and amateurs with ambition."

All the works were judged by guest selectors including Tracy Hill and Nathan Pendlebury, who are both established artists and curators. Together the selection panel has chosen almost 150 artworks for exhibition at the Chapel Gallery.

Several works of art received commendations and the overall winners were:

• Joint Third Prize £200 (£100 each): Steph Shipley, Of Other Spaces, Solar Plate Etching and Alan Smith, Island on Lock Eilt, Analogue Silver Print Photograph

• Second Prize £400: Jason Thompson, Melody Showed Me Blossfeldt, Enamel Paint and Varnish on Board

• First Prize £800: Arthur Roberts, Winter 2014/15 (Cadium Yellow), Acrylic and Graphite on Wood

The Open is one of the gallery's most popular exhibitions. People can place their vote for the People's Prize winner when they visit and be in with a chance to win a prize themselves.

If you would like a tour of the Open Exhibition contact the Gallery on 01695 571328 or email chapel.gallery@westlancs.gov.uk. There are free family–friendly gallery based activities available during every exhibition at the Chapel Gallery for people to explore, engage and enjoy.

Mayor of West Lancashire Councillor Nikki Hennessy presents first prize winner Arthur Roberts with his prize, watched by Nathan Pendlebury, one of the guest selectors Code NA

The gallery, on St Helens Road, is open from 10am to 4.30pm, Tuesday to Saturday. The gallery also has a café and craft shop, and admission is free. For more information visit www.westlancs.gov.uk/chapelgallery or www.chapelgallery.org.uk, email chapel.gallery@westlancs.gov.uk or call 01695 571328.

Also is on view is a showcase of 16 students artwork from the West Lancashire College Art & Design department.

Students at the College have the opportunity to experiment with a broad range of art techniques and processes, and as they progress, investigate themes and ideas which are personal to themselves.

The work seen at the gallery is a very small sample taken from a number of projects often based on traditional art themes or on the work of certain artists.

A spokesman for the council said: "The artwork is an eclectic mix that demonstrates a range of skills and understandings of the different mediums portrayed, to provide an interesting and innovative showcase."

Greta Scacchi to star in classic American drama at Playhouse

GRETA Scacchi and Tom Mothersdale will be joined by Erin Doherty and Eric Kofi Abrafa in Ellen McDougall's production of Tennessee Williams's The Glass Menagerie, which is coming to the Liverpool Playhouse.

The play is at the Williamson Square venue from Wednesday 7 to Saturday, October 31.

It features a frustrated mother, a daughter lost in her imagination, and a son intent on rebellion.

By night, Tom lives the life of an assassin, an outlaw, a czar of the underworld, via his trips to the movies. By day, he works in a factory. The air in the apartment he shares with his mother Amanda and his sister Laura is thick with the scent of sickly sweet flowers and Amanda's nostalgia. Laura barely survives it, a shadow of herself. She clings desperately to her only solace, her beloved glass menagerie.

When Amanda insists Tom bring home a gentleman caller for Laura, the fragile dreams of all three are shattered with consequences they may never escape.

Greta Scacchi plays Amanda. Greta is a well–known face from stage and screen, her theatre credits include The Seagull (Black Swan, Perth Aus), Bette and Joan (West End/Tour), Nothing Personal (Ensemble theatre Sydney), A Little Night Music (Chatelet Theatre Paris) and Private Lives (Theatre Royal Bath). Her many film roles include The Falling, Long Time Coming, Brideshead Revisited, Sotto Falso Nome, Presumed Innocent, White Mischief and Defence of the Realm. Scacchi has won an Emmy and AFI award and is a Golden Globe and BAFTA Award nominated actress.

Tom Mothersdale plays Tom. Tom's previous Headlong credits include Boys (Soho Theatre) and Romeo and Juliet (Nuffield/Tour). His other stage credits include Crave and 4.48 Psychosis (Sheffield), The Cherry Orchard (Young Vic), King Lear (Chichester/ BAM), An Ideal Husband (West End) and A Thousand Stars Explode in the Sky (Lyric Hammersmith). Television credits include Peaky Blinders and The Missing.

Erin Doherty plays Laura.

ADVERTISING FEATURE

The 8th Lydiate Classic Car and Bike Show took place on Sunday 5th July. An amazing variety of vehicles attended ranging from a Raleigh Wisp to a Harley Davidson and a Reliant to a Rolls Royce. The show raised a wonderful £3235.00 for NWCR (North West Cancer Research), considering rain stopped play at 2pm.

The organisers would like to take this opportunity to thank all who exhibited, all the helpers and all those who came to support the event.

MoT changes are breeding an era of careless motorists

GEORGE OSBORNE has some great news if you're thinking of buying a new car. What used to be a three–year period of grace away from the MoT testers is now four years.

Just think – buy a new Nissan Note tomorrow and it'll be long after England have narrowly lost out at a penalty shootout somewhere near Moscow that you'll have to check your car's roadworthiness.

Naturally, the Government's line is that it'll save you somewhere in the region of £50 and is therefore good for the economy, but look between the motoring world's faultlines and you'll find plenty of people who aren't exactly over the moon at the announcement.

I punted the proposals at a group of motorists who tend to take the MoT quite seriously – classic car owners – and they gave the idea of brand new cars spending an extra year on the roads with no legally binding checks a distinctly cool reception.

The main thing that got the Triumph Spitfire fans into a lather was the idea of cars having an extra 12 months to wear out their tyres while doing a million miles an hour on the outside lane of the M62. While some of them proposed basing the test around mileage instead, another one put it simply by saying: 'My MoT tester fails more three–year–old cars than anything else. Sometimes with a list of faults so long it won't fit on the page.'

Waiting longer to get your car checked is a dangerous move

For me, the problem isn't with your car – it's with all those people who neither know nor care about what makes their set of wheels roadworthy. I've lost count of the number of two–year–old cars that have lights that don't work, bits hanging off them and light accident damage that clearly hasn't been repaired. Normally, it's down to the police to reel 'em in for not being roadworthy – and we all know that force budgets have been slashed in another move endorsed by Cameron's Britain.

The nightmare scenario – and I hope it never comes to this – is a generation of cars maintained on the cheap with all sorts of nasty niggles not being unearthed by MoT testers. You – if you're reading this column and therefore like cars – get it. The ones I worry about are people who don't realise their Fiesta is handling like a 1950s Wolseley because it's got bald tyres. The sort of people who check their oil about as regularly as they write Christmas cards.

It's these people you see driving nearly new cars that look and sound like escapees from an episode of Only Fools and Horses. Sorry George, but you've let them off the hook for another year.

Two hit centuries before Glaysher and Stone seal big win for Burscough

BURSCOUGH continue to run riot at the top of the Second Division after a 133 run home win over Sutton, after choosing to bat the hosts pummelled their way to 244–2 dec, thanks to two fine centuries from Australian Navdeep Aujla (121 inc 11x4 & 6x6) and Ryan Hughes (102* inc 12x4 and 1x6).

In reply, skipper Rob Glaysher 5–22 and Jon Stone 5–41 then bowled out Sutton for 111 to seal victory.

Skelmersdale were not quite to pull off an unlikely victory in a rain reduced match at home to Spring View.

The visitors scored 221–4 declared in 49.1 overs with Akbar Rehman scoring 115.

Ben Maddocks scored 94 not out in Skelmersdale's reply and fellow opener Ben Till scored 50 before retiring hurt while Akmal Ghafoor scored 54 but the innings closed on 214–4 after 28 overs.

Hightown St Mary's match at Birkenhead St Mary's also was affected by the rain after they ahd put 205 up on the board.

Sam Black with 5–57 and Mike Griffiths 3–39 were the pick of the bowlers for the home side. In reply the hosts had reached 82–2 when play came to an end.

Maghull closed the gap on First Division leaders Colwyn Bay with a 54 win at Rainford.

This weekend's LDCC First and Second Division local fixtures: Maghull v Fleetwood Hesketh, Clady v Skelmersdale, Wavertree v Burscough.

Kerrigan spins out seven as Ormskirk close gap on leaders

ORMSKIRK closed the gap on New Brighton at the top of the Liverpool & District Cricket Competition Premier Division with a 33 run at Rainhill, on a day when rain hit local teams' victory chances, writes Glenn Wallworth.

Only skipper Matty Glayzer (33), Gary Knight (31) and young George Lavelle (21) were able to pass 20 in a below par total of 129 for Ormskirk, as the league's leading wicket taker Mohammad Qureshi went to 60 for the season with 8–45. In reply, the hosts looked on course for victory at 45–1, before spinners Simon Kerrigan took 7–34 and West Indian Dane Currency took 3–38.

Formby were halted by the weather at Wallasey after posting 221–7 declared, thanks in no small part to Lancashire's Stephen Parry (51), Jack Vale (39), Haseeb Hameed (33) and an unbeaten 31 from Gary Keedy. In reply the hosts had reached 37 without loss when rain stopped play.

Southport & Birkdale were also beaten by the weather at Lytham, after choosing to bat the hosts were indebted to an unbeaten 93 from Australian Dom O'Brien, 38 from Will Hale and 37 from Tom Hessey as they declared on 241–5. In reply, Scott Lees (57) and an unbeaten 32 from Josh Bohannon took S&B to 108–3 before rain stopped play.

Northern scored 222–5 declared at home to Leigh thanks to valuable runs from Ryan Maddock (69), Davy Smith (46) and an unbeaten 37 from skipper James Cole, with Matty McKiernan taking 3–54. In reply, Leigh had reached 86–3 when the match was ended by the rain.

Northern reached the last eight of the Royal London National Knockout on Sunday with a hard fought 25 run win at Oakbrook & Borrowash. They host Kimberley Institute from Nottingham at Moor Park on Sunday, August 9 for a place in the semi finals.

This weekend's LDCC Premier League local fixtures: Formby v Northern, Ormskirk v Wallasey, Southport & Birkdale v Rainhill.

Lawson excited by signings

Report by Neil Leatherbarrow

SKELMERSDALE United manager Tommy Lawson has had a busy summer and the fruits of all his work have left him excited by the prospects for his team in the new season.

He said: "I am delighted by the quality of player we have been able to attract during the summer, it leaves me excited to think what they are capable of producing next season."

Only two players have moved on since last season and both of them have gone to play at a higher level within the game, Ben Tollitt to Portsmouth and Danny Wisdom to National League North side Stalybridge Celtic.

Lawson has secured two members of the 2013 Championship winning side and has retained four other members of that team that rejoined him during March and still has long serving Championship winners in Rob McIntosh and Kenny Strickland.

Championship winning captain Tom Hardwick is back, as is left sided player and free–kick specialist Louis Corrigan. They join Mark Jackson, Paul Woolcott, Tony Rendell and Warren Bellew.

Lawson has also signed former Everton and Fleetwood Town midfielder Ged Kinsella and Jamie Rainford a striker with a terrific track record for finding the net during his times with Marine, Chester and Halifax Town.

Two goalkeepers have also joined Skelmersdale, local lad Dean Porter and Jack Cookson.

Fans who buy season tickets before the first home friendly on Saturday, July 25 against FA Vase finalists Glossop North End, can attend that and further scheduled friendlies against Northwich 1874 on Tuesday, July 28, AFC Fylde on Saturday, August 1 and the local derby v Burscough on Tuesday, August 4 free of charge.

For those of you who don't know Booths already, we pride ourselves on the quality of our food and drink. We develop strong relationships with the best local suppliers, which means that you can buy food which is made in our region with care, integrity and pride.

FISHMONGER

Many of the species we sell come from British coastal waters. Because we're happy to vary our range according to the catch, it's all as fresh as it can possibly be.

CHEESEMONGER

Territorial cheese is one of the foodie gems of the five Northwest counties where we have our stores, so naturally you'll find some of the finest handmade examples at Booths.

CAFÉ

Relax and unwind in the café with a delicious lunch time snack or afternoon sweet treat. Our tea and coffee is blended and packed in-house using time honoured traditions.

BUTCHER

Our butcher's counters are fully loaded and we won't take products until they are at their best for the table.

FAIR MILK

Whenever you buy a pint of Booths milk, you're giving the farmer a truly fair price for it. As dairy producers are under pressure, we guarantee to pay our farmers the highest market price for every pint of milk.

We work hard to develop strong, supportive relationships with family-run farms in our home counties of Lancashire, Cumbria, Cheshire and Yorkshire.

Paying the highest market price means that these family businesses are able to keep going, invest in the future, and spend more time and money looking after their animals to ensure that they produce great quality milk.
